

"European Economic Governance revisited"

Cahier Boël 11

(June 2004)

Summary and Conclusions*Introduction*Chap. I: The need for better economic governance

- 1.1. The present set-up of policies
- 1.2. What does experience teach us?
- 1.3. Deficits in policy coordination

Chap. II: Macroeconomic policies - Directions for change

- 2.1. The objectives
- 2.2. A contra-cyclical policy for EMU?
- 2.3. The single and independent monetary policy
- 2.4. Fiscal policies
  - 2.4.1. The challenges of fiscal discipline
  - 2.4.2. Options for change in fiscal coordination
  - 2.4.3. Towards a two-layer SGP

Chap. III: The coordination of structural policies

- 3.1. Common features of structural policies
- 3.2. The scope for structural policies
- 3.3. How to improve governance
  - 3.3.1. Streamlining the European-wide message
  - 3.3.2. Restoring appropriate linkages from top to bottom
  - 3.3.3. Involving public opinion

Chap. IV: Institutional aspects

- 4.1. European Convention: little transfer of policy competence ...
- 4.2. ...but new dispositions regarding economic governance
- 4.3. ELEC proposals for changes in economic governance
  - 4.3.1. Reinforcing the Eurogroup
  - 4.3.2. Enhanced role for the Commission
  - 4.3.3. Switch to more majority voting
  - 4.3.4. New institutional framework for an economic governance of EMU

Chap. V: External representation of EMU

- 5.1. A mixed bag of responsibilities
- 5.2. The case of EMU and IMF
- 5.3. Other areas of external representation
- 5.4. Key issue: ensuring a single voice

Annex I

- Box 1 - Survey on economic policy coordination within the EU
Box 2 - Basic rules of the Stability and Growth Pact (SGP)
Box 3 - Council resolution proposals to strengthen the SGP

Annex II

1. The Draft EU Constitution and the international relations of the euro area
2. A Federal Budget

-----