

"Financial Supervision in Europe"

Cahier Boël 12

(March 2006)

ForewordIntroduction*Part I: Financial Supervision in Europe: do we need a new architecture?

1. Introduction
 2. Industry developments
 - Integration of risk management functions
 3. Does Home Country Control suffice?
 4. Future policy options
 - Cooperation between home and host countries
 - Lead supervision
 - Pan-European Supervisor
 5. Conclusions
- References

Part II: Comments by ELEC members

- The perspective of a practising banker
 - The European regulatory framework
 - Enhancing efficiency
 - CRD and art. 129 - Moving in the right direction?
 - Externalities
 - Conclusions

The implications for deposit guarantees schemes
