

"How to strengthen the European Monetary Union"

Cahier Boël 15

(April 2011)

ForewordPart I: Breaking up is hard to do

by Mark CLIFFE, Chief Economist, ING

Part II: Eurobonds - Concepts and implications

by Sylvester EIJJFINGER, Professor Financial Economics, Tilburg University

Introduction

Overview of the various proposals for introducing Eurobonds

Implications for financial markets and economic governance

Arguments against the introduction of Eurobonds and alternatives

Conclusion

Part III: The unexpected revision of the Lisbon Treaty and the establishment of a European Stability Mechanism

by Jean-Victor LOUIS, Professeur émérite, Université Libre d Bruxelles

The amendment of the TFEU

Key features of the ESM

Some comments on restructuring

Conclusion

Part IV: Permanent crisis management mechanism

by Paul GOLDSCHMIDT, Former Director at the European Commission

Introduction

A permanent European Crisis Management Mechanism

The issuance of Eurobonds

Conclusion

Part V: Comments on the paper of P. Goldschmidt

by Werner BECKER, Former Chief Economist, Deutsche Bank
